Elizabeth Vines

Elizabeth Vines is an experienced conservation architect. She is the current President of Australian ICOMOS and an Adjunct Professor at the Cultural Heritage Centre for Asia and the Pacific, Faculty of Arts, Deakin University, Melbourne. She has been the heritage advisor at Broken Hill for nearly 30 years and the place has become lodged in her "DNA"!!! Elizabeth is committed to the practical reuse, improvement and rejuvenation of city centres and historic buildings and is a passionate advocate for heritage conservation issues.

Broken Hill national listing – How was this achieved?

Paper Abstract

This snapshot will provide a quick summary of what we did, and how we achieved National Listing. It will also ask – was it worth it and what are the immediately felt benefits for the city since inscription in January 2015?
