

Jan Utzon

Jan Utzon grew up with architecture as the main theme of his childhood. He studied architecture in Sydney and Copenhagen, graduated spring 1970, from which time he has been a registered architect in Denmark. After graduation he worked in various offices in Denmark, and with Jorn Utzon on a Church in Copenhagen and the National Assembly (parliament) project in Kuwait. He was working with "Architects of Hawaii" in 1974 and became registered as an architect in Hawaii. From 1976 until now, Jan has collaborated on various works with Jorn Utzon in Denmark, Portugal, Germany, Sweden, USA, China, Zimbabwe, Malawi, Angola, South Africa, Mozambique, Mexico and Australia. Since 1988 he has headed the office and since 1998 he has been involved in the refurbishment of the Sydney Opera House. Jan Utzon is the author of "Three Generations" which presents the work of the Utzon family.
