

Ken Taylor

Emeritus Professor Ken Taylor is Adjunct Professor in the Research School of Humanities, The Australian National University and member of the board of the Institute for Professional Practice in Heritage and the Arts. He is International Associate Editor for the journal, Landscape Research. He has degrees in Geography, Town Planning and Landscape Architecture and is a former Director of the Cultural Heritage Research Centre, University of Canberra. He has had a research interest in cultural landscapes since the mid-1980s and published nationally and internationally on meanings, values and cultural landscape conservation. He is a member of ICOMOS ISC on Cultural Landscapes. He is also a Visiting Professor at Silpakorn University, Bangkok where he teaches on the International Program in Architectural Heritage Management and Tourism and supervises PhD students. His latest book Canberra: City in the Landscape was published in 2006. He is currently co-writing a book on cultural mapping for ASEAN countries and co-editing a book on cultural landscapes of the Asia-Pacific/North American region.

Australian Institute of Architects

ISC20C

ICOMOS International Scientific Committee on 20th
Century Heritage