

Laura Robinson

LAURA ROBINSON B ARCH (UCT) Pr ARCH MIArch, CIA An architect by profession, Laura is currently the Director of the Cape Town Heritage Trust, which is tasked with the conservation and promotion of the built environment and cultural landscape of Cape Town. A Past President of the Cape Institute for Architecture and a Board member of the S A Institute of Architects, Laura is a member of the SAIA Heritage Committee and serves as their representative for ICOMOS SA. Laura is also the ICOMOS SA representative for the ISC for 20th century heritage. Apart from her work as Director of the CTHT Laura has worked with World Heritage Site matters since 1997 and was responsible for the preparation of the nomination dossier for Robben Island. Current projects include the development of a Conservation Management Plan for the University of Cape Town and the establishment of the management authority for Taung World Heritage Site.

Australian Institute of Architects

ISC20C

ICOMOS International Scientific Committee on 20th
Century Heritage