Dr PeterRaisbeck has combined architectural practice, project management, business consulting and academia in the sphere of architectural practice for more than 20 years. His dissertation Marine Cities 1958- 1978: Architectural experiments and ocean systems is a history of marine architecture which examines how engineering innovations in technology were transferred to architecture

Anna Ely

Architect Bachelor of Architecture RMIT 1984 ARB, RAIA.

Anna Ely combines architectural practice with university teaching. She is an examiner for the Architects Registration Board of Victoria and sometime activist.

Anna's particular interest is the study of the city as a spatial and architectural landscape in the belief that one challenge of the 21stcentury is maintaining urbanity in our expanding conurbations.
