

Rebecca Hawcroft

Rebecca Hawcroft has been a Sydney based heritage consultant for the last eight years, most recently with Godden Mackay Logan Pty Ltd. She holds a Bachelor of Arts and a Masters of Heritage Conservation from the University of Sydney. She has extensive experience in the assessment and management of heritage sites. Rebecca began her study of modernism and the European émigré community during her Masters degree and has developed it in conjunction with her consulting work and during time spent on the Royal Australian Institute of Architects (RAIA) NSW Heritage Committee.
