Welcome to The People's Ground

We welcome our delegates from around Australia and overseas, our keynote Frank Vagnone, and our other speakers to The People's Ground Conference.

The conference takes as its name the vernacular moniker of the main conference venue, the nationally significant Melbourne Cricket Ground (MCG).

As the National Heritage List citation for this place says, "The significance of the MCG extends far beyond that of a mere sports stadium.

It is an integral part of the fabric of Melbourne and the nation, and has gained an egalitarian image as 'the people's ground'".

The conference recognises that the heritage significance of historic, Indigenous and natural places is inextricably about people and community—that heritage is "the people's ground".

In what is the 40th year of Australia ICOMOS and the 60th of the National Trust of Australia (Victoria), we are delighted to mark this century partnership by presenting the conference.

We thank our Principal Partners, Lovell Chen Architects & Heritage Consultants, and our other supporters for their help in bringing this celebratory event to fruition as we reflect on the past 60 years of heritage practice in Australia and look towards the future.

Keynote Speaker

Franklin Vagnone

Principal, Twisted Preservation

Franklin Vagnone, with a strong background in the creative arts (architecture; design; sculpture), is a public historian who has been labelled a “domestic-archeo-anthropologist”. He has over 25 years of transformational leadership experience in non-profit management, financial oversight, fundraising, strategic planning, board relationships, award-winning cultural programming, and creative place-making development.

Seen as an international thought leader in innovative and entrepreneurial non-profit management, he has a thoughtful combination of philosophical and practical experiences that have allowed him to consult, lecture, and teach internationally for an extensive list of universities, cultural sites, museums, and community-based membership organisations.

Franklin maintains the blog Twisted Preservation and the series “One Night Stand” overnights in historic house museums, which to date, has readers in over 85 countries. He also moderates international discussion group “The Anarchist’s Guide to Historic House Museums”.

He has co-authored The Anarchist’s Guide to Historic House Museums (with Ms Deborah Ryan)—a book about innovative concepts for historic cultural sites.

The book, now in its 3rd printing since November 2015, was voted best Museum Education-related book of 2015 by Museum Education Monitor, and became #1 bestseller (Museum-related) on Amazon for February 2016.

While Executive Director of major historic house organisations in Philadelphia (The Philadelphia Society for the Preservation of Landmarks) and New York City (Historic House Trust of New York City), his leadership has been recognised through two Lucy G Moses awards from the New York Landmarks Conservancy, Award of Excellence from the Greater Hudson Heritage Network, Award of Merit from Museum Association of New York Award, and a Grand Jury Medal from The Philadelphia Preservation Alliance.

In recognition of his sustained work in the museum profession, Franklin was selected for the 2015 Museum Association of New York State—Individual Achievement Award (with Deborah Ryan).

Plenary Speakers

Peter Lovell

*Director, Lovell Chen Architects
& Heritage Consultants*

Peter Lovell's enduring interest in the analysis and re-use of older buildings and sites began during his studies at Melbourne University, where he followed a Bachelor of Building degree with post-graduate research on the decay and preservation of materials. He founded Lovell Chen Architects & Heritage Consultants—originally as Allom Lovell & Associates—in 1981. The practice is now a leader in design and management associated with heritage places.

Aishwarya Tipnis

*Aishwarya Tipnis
Architects*

Aishwarya Tipnis heads an independent conservation consultancy firm in India. Their work has been focused on making the past relevant to the future by using design as a strategic tool. She has been recipient of the Commonwealth Professional Fellowship, Scottish International Scholarship and has authored the book Vernacular Traditions: Contemporary Architecture.

Catrini Pratihari Kubontubuh

*Chairperson, Indonesian
Heritage Trust*

Catrini Pratihari Kubontubuh has a background in city planning and architecture, having received a bachelors degree from the Institute of Technology, Bandung Indonesia, and masters degree from K.U. Leuven, Belgium.

She is a PhD candidate at Institute of Technology Bandung in the field of Architecture and Conservation, Chairperson of the Indonesian Heritage Trust, and member of the Executive Committee of the International National Trusts Organisation (INTO) based in London.

ARCHITECTS & HERITAGE CONSULTANTS

Lovell Chen Architects & Heritage Consultants

Lovell Chen is an integrated architectural practice and heritage consultancy—integrated in the way we work and in the way we approach design for heritage contexts. We are led by two directors, supported by a highly skilled team of practitioners in all fields of architecture and heritage.

Our approach to collaborative working extends to the way we work with clients and members of the broader project team. We often work closely with other architectural practices in the achievement of the adaptation and reuse of heritage places.

Heritage

Working Heritage

Working Heritage is responsible for the conservation and management of some of Victoria's treasured places—from the Royal Mint in central Melbourne to courthouses in country towns. Our role is to revitalise these places to ensure they have a purpose now and in the future.

Our approach is to work with tenants to conserve cultural significance, develop compatible uses and adapt buildings to suite contemporary needs. A family home becomes a restaurant, a mint becomes a museum and a courthouse becomes a theatre. Finding a balance of commercial and community uses for these places means we can fund our work as well as creating affordable spaces for community groups.
