

Don Watson

Don Watson is an architect with the Queensland Department of Public Works. He has worked with the National Trust and lectured at the University of Queensland and QUT. Don has spoken and published on Queensland architecture and engineering and has served as a member of the Heritage Advisory Committee to the Queensland Heritage Council. He co-authored with Judith McKay A Directory of Queensland Architects to 1940 (1984) and Queensland Architects of the Nineteenth Century: a biographical dictionary (1994). The Department of Public Works is owner of the most extensive land holding in the vicinity of the Brisbane Riverside Expressway.

Australian Institute of Architects

ISC20C

ICOMOS International Scientific Committee on 20th Century Heritage