

Helen Davies

Helen Davies, founder of Paintwrights, is an artist and designer, with an interest in heritage interpretation. Helen holds a Fine Art degree and qualifications in traditional wood graining and faux marbling, all from the UK. She has an enduring interest in traditional paint, colour schemes and techniques. She designs and paints interpretive murals and public art works. Helen is responsible for decorations in the Hydro Majestic Hotel, Swifts House, Darling Point, Struan House, Penola, South Australia, and Quong Tart's house in Ashfield. She has painted murals in private and public locations, most recently at the old Parramatta Fire Station.
