

Richard Silink

Richard Silink joined the Historic Houses Trust in 2005 to establish and manage the Endangered Houses Fund program. Richard is a practising architect with a Masters in Heritage Conservation and was an Associate of Allen Jack + Cottier Architects in Sydney before joining the HHT. He has been involved in a wide range of heritage and adaptive re-use projects and was joint project architect for the conservation of the c1892 Former Submarine Mining Depot building at Chowder Bay that was awarded the NSW RIAA Francis Greenway Conservation Award in 2003.

Australian Institute of Architects

ISC20C

ICOMOS International Scientific Committee on 20th Century Heritage